

Job overview

Less Mess Storage is a fast growing and leading self storage company in Central Europe. We have an opening for a Financial Analyst who will work closely with the CFO in providing financial reporting and analysis for the Board. The role will also involve interesting data analysis from across the business to help direct strategy.

Job description

The role will include:

- Preparing the management reporting package on a monthly basis;
- Support annual forecasting and budgeting process;
- Support cash flow planning;
- Evaluate financial performance by analysing results, monitoring variances, identifying trends and recommending actions to management in order to improve efficiency;
- Increase productivity by developing automated reporting/forecasting tools;
- Analysis of operating results;
- Support with banking and investor relationships.

Basic qualifications

The successful candidate will have:

- Strong numeracy and analytical skills, and ability to learn quickly;
- Excellent understanding and ease of working in Excel;
- Studying for or attainment of a degree in Accounting or Finance or Economics or Maths;
- A positive, energetic and conscientious attitude to work, and be happy in working with a dynamic team on various projects.