

Less Mess, Less Stress™

Job opening for a Site Finder

Job overview

Less Mess Storage is a fast growing and leading self storage company in Central Europe with stores located in Poland's main cities and Prague. We are looking to recruit a site finder who will be responsible for sourcing development opportunities for Less Mess to expand its portfolio.

Job description

The role will include:

- Sourcing potential sites suitable for development by Less Mess in order to create a full pipeline.
- Checking areas of interest to Less Mess, reviewing zoning plans and development potential.
- Site scouting, and contacting site owners to generate leads for acquisition opportunities.
- Initiating negotiations and developing relationships with site vendors and/or their representatives, and supporting the Development Director and CEO throughout the site acquisition process.

Qualifications

The successful candidate will have:

- Experience with sales and negotiation.
- Strong interpersonal skills.
- Knowledge of the local property market.
- A clean driver's license.
- A positive, energetic and conscientious attitude, a willingness to learn, and be happy working with a dynamic team on various projects.

Please submit your application (CV and covering letter) to the following email address: biuro@lessmess.pl.